Undergraduate Student Information Ontario Student Assistance Program

- 1) All Undergraduate students requesting financial assistance for the Summer session (May 2017 to August 2017) must complete a “Western Full-time Undergraduate Summer 2017 Supplemental OSAP Application”. Please refer to the chart below. If you are eligible for OSAP and have not previously applied for OSAP for 2016-2017, you must complete a 2016-2017 online OSAP application, in addition to this “Undergraduate Supplemental Application”. The web application can be found at <https://ontario.ca/page/osap-ontario-student-assistance-program>.
- 2) Students enrolling in one distance studies half course, one distance studies full course, or one evening half course ONLY must complete the “OSAP Application for Part-Time Students” web application, which can be found online at <https://ontario.ca/page/osap-ontario-student-assistance-program>. Once your application is submitted, please hand in your completed signature pages and required documentation (if any) to Western Student Services Building: Student Financial Aid, Room 1100. Part-Time Application and Supporting Documentation Deadline is 42 days prior to your study period end date. Students enrolling in one distance studies full course and have a permanent disability have the option to apply for Full-Time or Part-Time OSAP.
- 3) Please notify Student Financial Aid, immediately in writing, of any changes to your application. The “Summer OSAP Change form” can be found in Room 1100 or Student Central, Western Student Services Building or by downloading the form at: http://www.registrar.uwo.ca/student_finances/osap_government_loans/osap_forms.html. Changes to your application can be mailed, or dropped off to Room 1100 or Student Central, Room 1120, Western Student Services Building.
- 4) Please ensure a timely application, as release of funding may be impacted by government deadlines.
- 5) PLEASE NOTE - False or misleading statements on your application may result in suspension of funding and prosecution. All applications are subject to audit.

Applications may take up to 6 weeks to process
