1.0 Introduction

Western's Work Study program offers an opportunity for students to work part-time on campus in jobs that accommodate their studies.

What are the objectives of the Work Study Program?

- To assist students in financial need with a regular source of income.
- To offer students training and experience that will assist them in further studies and their eventual entrance into the workforce.
- To provide assistance to faculty and staff.

How do students find out about the positions available?

Each term, students must apply for Work Study via the applicable financial assistance application (please note that the application process is different for undergraduate and graduate students, more information can be found here:

http://registrar.uwo.ca/student\_finances/work\_study.html).

Students are notified through their Western email account of their work study decision. Once a student has been notified that they are approved for work study for the term, they will be able to access the job postings on the Work Study Center.

Which students are eligible for Work Study?

Students must be approved for work study for the current term prior to being hired. Only students who are eligible for current term work study will be able to view and apply to your job postings on the Work Study Center. If an ineligible student is allowed to work, the department will be responsible for payment to the student.

- Undergraduate students:
  - Fall/Winter Work Study Program:
Undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need and are enrolled in a minimum 60% course load on main campus are eligible.
Student must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.
Please note: Affiliated College students are not eligible; each college has their own Work Study program during the Fall/Winter term. Please contact your Affiliated College's Financial Aid office for more information.
  - Summer Work Study Program:

Undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need and are enrolled in a minimum of one half or equivalent summer course are eligible.
Affiliated college students taking one half or equivalent summer course are eligible. Student must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.

- Graduate Students:
  - Graduate students must apply using a paper application each term by the published deadline. The application and eligibility criteria are available on the Office of the Registrar Website.

How many hours may a student work?

- Undergraduate students: the student and the supervisor must agree on a schedule of hours to work and must ensure that the hours worked do not interfere with the student's academic studies. As a guideline, we recommend no more than 18 hours per week. This is not mandatory as there are weeks in the year where students may have no classes (eg. Reading Week). Students are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per week.
- Graduate students: are limited to 10 hours per week based on full-time status requirements as stated in the Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies calendar. For more information please contact the School of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies.
- Note to Work Study Supervisors: Students may not exceed their total number of approved hours for the academic term. Upon hiring a Work Study student, an email stating the approved number of hours for the term is sent to the student, the Supervisor and Work Study Administrator. It is the responsibility of the Work Study Supervisor to keep track of the hours worked throughout the term and to ensure that the student does not exceed the approved number of hours. If a student works more than their total number of hours approved, the University may seek reimbursement for those hours from the supervisor's departmental budget. Any remaining hours at the end of the term are forfeited and cannot be carried over to the next term.

How do students get paid?

- Students will report their hours worked each week to their supervisor through an agreed-upon system (e.g. email, paper timesheet, etc.), who will confirm the hours and then forward them to the Work Study Administrator in their area to be entered into the payroll system.
- Students will receive their weekly pay via direct deposit, always two weeks in arrears. Questions about setting up direct deposit should be directed to Human Resources.
- T4 slips will be issued to students from Human Resources.

- Students will be paid $14 per hour plus 4% vacation pay from a Financial Aid Work Study account.

What is the length of the program?

- Undergraduate students may work from September – April for the Fall/Winter term and May – August for the Summer term. Exact dates will be communicated via email.
- Graduate students may work from September – December for the Fall term, January – April for the Winter term, and May – August for the Summer term.
- Exact start and end dates will be communicated via email.

Who should I contact if I have any questions or concerns about the program?

Contact wstudy@uwo.ca or Dahlia Shahatto, Student Financial Services Officer, ext. 88632

Features at a Glance

- Welcome to the Work Study Center

Posting Work Study jobs and the hiring process will now occur using the Work Study Center. The Work Study Center is an online recruitment application specific to the Work Study Program and provided by the Office of the Registrar.
- More Interaction with Students

The Work Study Center offers more features to enable a closer interaction with students during the recruitment process. Students can upload their resumes into the Work Study Center providing easy and secure access to this information.
- Paper Work Study Student Appointment Notice no longer required

When the student is hired in the Work Study Center the job and payroll information is automatically setup in the Human Resources system.

2.0 Responsibilities of the Work Study Supervisor

In order to supervise work study students, an individual has to have an active employment contract with the University and be in a position to ensure proper supervision of the student. Please note: Excluded groups include Professor Emeritus/Emerita, Graduate Students, Postdoctoral Fellows/Associates, and Adjunct Faculty.

Responsibilities of the Work Study Supervisor:

- Ensure that approved hours for the employment relationship are not exceeded.
- Ensure that information regarding departmental operations, including working hours, relevant policies and procedures and working relationships are reviewed with the work study student. Policies include Section 3 of the University Administrative Policy and Procedures.
- Ensure that all mandatory training is taken by the work study student to meet all Health and Safety regulations based on the work location, role and duties assigned <https://workstudy.uwo.ca/signup/healthandsafety.cfm>

Delegating:

Once the Supervisor's profile has been established, the duties of actually creating the job posting can be delegated, if desired, to another Western employee who meets the eligibility criteria outlined at the beginning of section 2.0. The delegate can post the position and organize the interview and selection processes on the Supervisor's behalf; however, the Supervisor must sign in to the Work Study Center and select the student to be hired to complete the recruitment transaction.

3.0 Responsibilities of the Work Study Administrator

Each faculty and business unit on campus has identified an individual(s) to act as the Work Study Administrator for their department. Administrators will receive notification of work study hires via email.

Responsibilities of the department Work Study Administrator:

- Support the Supervisor in ensuring that the student receives all the required Health and Safety training for their role and duties assigned.
- Manage the payroll aspects of the work study employment relationship. This includes entering the hours worked by the student into the Human Resources payroll system and submitting a Termination Notice if the employment relationship is ended before the end of the term.
- Ensure that all Reports are run in support of the employment relationship:

Pay Reconciliation Report

Work Study Pay Report

Work Study Hire Report

- Support the supervisor to ensure that approved hours for the employment relationship are not exceeded.
